Have you been checked lately?

It's more important than ever to make sure you're getting your cancer check-ups.

Cancer won't wait for Covid-19 to end.

Between March and April this year there was a 37% drop in imaging procedures for the detection of breast cancer.

At Novartis,
we believe in the health and wellness
of our community.

Which is why we're encouraging all employees to 'get checked' by offering a special leave day - Wellness Day is about getting early detection back on track.
